Nick Keeble presented the following updates to committee:

- a. The new ticket wallets were displayed. They are funded by adverts and the content can be changed every six months.
- b. The recent Wedding Fayre included a party venue brochure featuring the Arts' Centre. Three bookings were expected as a result of that event and another Fayre is anticipated for September.
- c. Advertising has commenced for the commercial vehicle rally which will be supplemented by a Saturday motor show on the Market Square. This event is being well supported by the St Edmundsbury Borough Council.
- d. For pensioners, arrangements are in hand for a Summer programme to include tribute nights and fun days with visits to Ely, Sheringham, Southend and Norwich.
- e. The saving the 70's project is coming along well with some good assistance from the History Group which are gathering images from the 70's. This will include 70's themed tribute nights, possibly a 70's food offering in the Bistro and outdoor prom in memory of Les Ager. The Festival programme is nearly done,
- f. Recent events at the Arts' Centre have proved popular, with Limehouse Lizzie attracting 200 and War Horse 600 plus school visits. The Barron Knights, Michael Portillo and Wedding Fayre were very good. We also have hopes that the Centre Stage show sales will improve. Overall, it's obvious that what works is working very well.

Committee thanked Nick and his team for their work on behalf of the town.

8. Closure

The meeting was closed at 7.54pm.
