Arts & Leisure Report for meeting on 5 July 2016

SUMMER 2016 SO FAR

Sun 12 June -Queens Birthday Tea Party — a public event was held in St Mary's Churchyard. We were fortunate to get additional funding from St Edmundsbury Borough Councillor's Locality Budgets. The event included entertainment in the form of music, storytelling, poetry, magic and comedy. Royal activities and quizzes were on offer along with free cakes. A disappointing number of people attended but those who came did enjoy themsleves — see overleaf.

Saturday 25 June - Armed Forces Day

Working with the Royal British Legion, Family History Group & St Marys Church, a celebration was held. The reaction for the first event of this kind was promising with good feedback about the marching band, the parade, flag-raising and military vehicles. A post event meeting is being organised to discuss how this event may be built into the Town's programme in future years.

ARTS CENTRE PROGRAMME

We have had good attendances for The Country Superstars, The Furey's, Raymond Froggatt, David Hamilton's Rock'n'Roll Show, Jeremy Hardy, Centre Stage's Brassed Off and Barbara Dickson along with excellent pre-sales for Marty Wilde and Andre Rieu. (1862 people at 78% overall capacity)

Film has, as predicted, struggled with a generally lacklustre programme of films. We have hosted our first Glyndebourne Opera screening and hope for stronger support for summer children's.

The Autumn season will see a varied line up which includes Albert Lee, Jethro, Shappi Khorsandi, Seann Walsh, Brendan Shine and Centre Stage return with a seasonal version of the Vicar of Dibley as well as our professional pantomime Robin Hood.

SHUT DOWN WEEK

In the first full week of August, the main auditorium 'goes dark' and the annual maintenance checks are carried out on the electrical equipment as well as the infrastructure that supports the lighting, sound and technical equipment.

In all, more than 900 items are PAT tested, weight tested, circuit tested and checked. The rest of the Arts Centre is still open for business during this time.
