P18 Street Naming, Development at North West Haverhill

/036 Cllr Tony Brown proposed that as it was the 100th Anniversary of WWI and 147 Haverhill people had died in the war, this was an opportunity to remember them by naming the new roads after them.

The new roads could be given the surnames only and be taken from a list to be compiled by Brian Thomas, Suffolk Family History (Haverhill) Group. Names should be chosen by a fair method and the post popular name, i.e. the family with the most casualties, be given to the road marked 4 on the map, the main access to the development.

The suggestion also to be put to the Borough that the bypass be named Suffolk Regiment Way, to tie it all together.

Proposed Cllr Brown, Seconded J Crooks
